Mobile: 07595 173534

eMail address:
timdrayton@tjdbuilders.co.uk

Tim commenced his career in the building profession in the early 1990's starting as an apprentice Bricklayer quickly being promoted to site foreman.

After successfully completing extensive training courses and gaining invaluable experience with large multi-national building firms, Tim decided to channel his vast knowledge and expertise into the formation of TJD Building Contractors Ltd in 2002 to offer an exceptionally high standard of building and project management to the private sector who require a more personal and hands-on approach to their building projects.

The reputation of the firm was quickly recognised by the "Federation of Master Builders" who awarded TJD Building Contractors Limited the prestigious award of "THE MASTER BUILDERS OF THE YEAR" for Eastern Region 2008, an achievement unsurpassed by any other firm in a similar time frame, and one which Tim, and his fellow directors are very proud.

With Tim Drayton at the helm of TJD, your building project will be in the safe hands of himself personally, together with his colleagues who's reputation, is respected by it's peers, together with the National Federation controlling the whole industry within the UK.

DIRECTOR

Mr. Alan Palmer

Tel: 01638 781984

Mobile: 07971 201084

eMail address:
alan@tjdbuilders.co.uk

Alan has over 25 years of experience dedicated to the building and construction industry.

Alan started at the age of 16 as apprentice Carpenter, specialising in this professional trade personally although with a wealth of knowledge spanning this time frame and extensive experience in all related building trades.

Working as a site manager and finishing foreman, for some of the largest building firms in the UK Alan is regularly requested for advice on contracts and projects for Cambridge colleges, schools, shopping centres, housing associations, & hospitals and stables.

As an invaluable member of the TJD team, and director of the firm, there is a well know phrase throughout the firm of: "If Alan doesn't know it, or can't do it...it probably cant be done".

DIRECTOR

Mr. Richard Pettitt

Tel: 01638 781984

Mobile: 07799 627338

Since the age of just 15, Richard has worked within the building industry and his personal reputation for "Things being right!" is well known throughout the profession, and is an attitude which he insists upon with all staff and subcontractors involved in client projects completed by TJD.

From an early age as a plasterer and ground worker, Richard has literally worked from the ground up to the position he now holds as a Director of one of the most respected building contractors in Cambridgeshire.

Richard has previously been actively involved with huge building organisations such as Brignals. Amey, and Waites and been an integral part of the team for contracts in Cambridge colleges, schools, housing associations, RAF barracks, prisons and Goldolphin stables although now dedicates his vast knowledge to the private clients of TJD Builders.
